What programs can I be admitted into?

Home-Based Learners may be admitted directly into programs in the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Social Work, Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance, and the Centre for Continuing Education. There are many areas of study available within these faculties. Check out a full list on the back of this page!

Interested in a different faculty of area of study? Students can talk to an Enrolment Counsellor about pathways into our other programs and what will be best suited to their goals.

University of Regina Student Supports

Before You Start

Our Enrolment Services team is there to support students considering University of Regina programs. Our Enrolment Counsellors offer individual appointments to discuss your goals, opportunities, and the application process. These appointments can be done in person in Regina and Saskatoon or at a distance via phone appointments.

We also offer free campus tours and events throughout the year for you to discover the U of R before applying.

Financial Support

The U of R offers scholarships at the start of every semester. Enrolment Counsellors help new students apply for awards when they begin their program and can provide guidance on student loans and other funding opportunities that may be available.

On Campus Support

Our broad range of free programs and services will help students adjust to campus life and develop the skills required to achieve success as a student and beyond. Supports include:

- Free Math & Writing Tutors
- Skill Development Workshops
- Leadership Programs
- Academic Advising
- Career Guidance
- Counselling Services
- IT Support
- And more!
Choose Your Community

University of Regina students who are studying in the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance, and Faculty of Science have the opportunity to enroll through one of our three federated colleges: Campion College, Luther College, and First Nations University of Canada. Our federated colleges offer students a unique and supportive community within the larger U of R community, at no extra cost.

Enrolling through a federated college is perfect for students who are looking for that extra support and community to call home on campus. Federated college students pay regular tuition and have access to all the U of R supports and services. They also gain access to:

- One-on-One Academic Advising
- Smaller Class Sizes
- Personalized Support & Services
- Additional Scholarship Opportunities

Campion College

As Canada’s only Jesuit undergraduate college located on the U of R main campus, Campion is one of almost 200 worldwide members of the International Association of Jesuit Universities. They are committed to developing students who believe in giving back to their communities by uniting academic excellence with attention to services for others.
