| ENGL 100     | Critical Reading and Writing I
This course develops students’ proficiency in critical reading and writing through the study of a wide range of non-literary and literary texts, and the study of composition, with emphasis on connections between modes of reading and writing. |
| *ANTH 100    | Introduction to Anthropology
An introduction to the anthropological concept of culture, its uses in the explanation of human behavior, and its impact on our understanding of human nature, language and society. The course will explore cultural diversity through the comparative perspective that makes anthropology unique within the humanities and social sciences. |

FAQs

How will the course/s apply to a students program?

• ENGL 100 is a mandatory course that everyone in university needs!

• ANTH 100 can be used as a social science elective in many programs (ARTS, etc.)
FAQs

What if a student want to drop a class?

• Advice them to talk to their instructor
• Non-attendance does not mean you’ve withdrawn
  o No withdrawal = full tuition and a failing grade and a permanent record on your transcript
• Contact CCE Student Services to drop the course
