

UR GAP YEAR PROGRAM

Are you planning to work, travel, or volunteer next year? If so, we'll save your spot for one year! The UR Gap Year Program allows current high school students to take a year off in between high school and coming to the University of Regina. By indicating that you'd like to be a part of the UR Gap Year Program, we will defer your admission as well as any automatic entrance scholarships* funded by the University of Regina you have qualified for. During the year, you'll also be able to take advantage of many services to help you stay connected with the University and prepare you for your first year of study or future career options, including the opportunity to earn credit towards the UR Guarantee Program! Some of the other additional services include access to:

- Career Centre
- Aboriginal Student Centre
- Student Success Centre
- UR Guarantee
- Centre for Student Accessibility
- Academic Advising

You are eligible to take part in the UR Gap Year Program if you meet the following criteria:

- Must be entering the University directly from a Canadian high school
- Admitted to a direct-entry undergraduate program (Nursing students are not eligible. Education students need permission from the faculty)
- Will not be attending another postsecondary institution during the Gap Year. Students who plan to pursue studies at non-accredited institutions (such as Bible Colleges) may be considered.
- Have submitted this completed form by August 31, 2018
