What is the After-Degree Nursing program?

The two-year degree that leads to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing is designed for students who have already completed an undergraduate degree in another subject. Admission is competitive based on your admission average, and there are 38 seats available in the program at the Regina location. Your eligibility for a seat in the program will be based on your admission average in comparison to the other applicants.

How can I apply to the After-Degree Nursing program?

There is an online application and a paper application to the program, and you will submit it by the appropriate deadline:

- Domestic Applicants (Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, Refugees): February 15
- International Applicants (Non Residents who will be on a Study Visa): December 31

What admission documents are required?

You will need to submit your official transcripts from any post-secondary studies you have completed. There may be additional documents required for your application, such as proof of English proficiency, if you have not previously studied in an English curriculum. The documentation required to verify Aboriginal ancestry are a photocopy of your federal ID card or Métis Council ID card; or a letter from your Band office, Métis Local, Métis Community, or a Métis elder. These documents must be submitted before a student can be given an equity seat. Applicants must submit their documents by the appropriate deadline:

- Domestic Applicants (Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, Refugees): March 1
- International Applicants (Non Residents who will be on a Study Visa): January 31
