

Getting questions from students? Many great opportunities to visit U of R campus and learn more this fall!

Hi Erin,

It's almost time for the holiday break! Phew. Before students check out for the year, encourage them to attend any of our upcoming events between now and the break. For your students interested in Business or Kinesiology, we have great on-campus events December 7th! See all the details below.

Important Nursing Update & Process Change: Please note that the Faculty of Nursing will now be offering seats to high school applicants with entrance averages above 90% earlier. As these students apply, SaskPoly will work to send letters of offer out immediately (rather than waiting until after the deadline to apply). These will still act as conditional offers of admission (must complete required grade 12 courses with a minimum of 70% on each). Please encourage students to check their mysaskpoly account and forward it to an email address they check frequently as this is where offers will be sent. Our team will work to email and call these students to ensure they don't miss any key communications. Students interested in applying to Nursing can do so online.

Students can also apply at any of our upcoming Admission on the Spot events (with free mittens and the discounted application fee).

The application for residence is NOW OPEN! Students are able to indicate if they would like to live with a friend and apply for one of our Living Learning Communities all at once. We will be introducing three new LLC's in the coming year to support your students and help them navigate university life and experience academic success while living on campus! See a listing of our new communities below.

What is Business?

December 7: Full Day

Students attend mini-lectures given by our faculty in various areas of study. Student groups and alumni are also on hand to talk about their experiences and how new students can get involved and much more. Have your students register today!

Who is Kinesiology?

December 7: Full Day

Students will hear from faculty members, learn about our degree programs, certifications and community connections while exploring our research labs and engaging in unique sporting experiences. Register soon!

New LLC's coming soon!

Education LLC: Students live with other students who share their passion for teaching.

Pre-Professional LLC: Designed for your students pursuing professional programs. Students take required courses together while receiving support to give them a competitive advantage.

Humanities, Liberal Arts): For those already decided on a program or those exploring their options. These students will take clusters of courses together!
