Application Process

Students applying for admission as a Home-Based Learner must submit the following:

1. Application Form for Undergraduate Admission
2. Application Fee
3. Admission Profile for Home-Based Learners, this includes:
   • Statement of Identification
   • Letter of Intent/Personal Statement
   • Home-Based Learner Transcript
   • SAT I or ACT official result slip/other relevant transcripts

SAT, ACT, Other Transcripts Criteria

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. A minimum score of 1100 in the SAT I (Critical Reading & Math portions), or a minimum average of 24 in the ACT and

2. One of the following:
   • A minimum grade of 60% in one university course in a relevant admission subject. This course may be taken from the University of Regina or another accredited university;
   • A minimum grade of 65% in one 30-level high school course. This course must appear on the official provincial transcript of high school grades;
   • A minimum grade of 4 in an approved Advanced Placement course;
   • A minimum score in the 70% percentile on one SAT II subject examination.

Evidence of achievement is provided by the following documents, to be sent directly from the responsible institution or agency directly to the Enrolment Services Office. Documents are not accepted from applicants, unless otherwise noted.

1. SAT Score Reports must be sent from the College Board directly to the University of Regina (www.collegeboard.org). ACT Score Reports can be requested online by indicating the University of Regina’s institution code, 7980.

2. One of the following:
   • Other University Transcripts - These must be sent from the issuing institution to the University of Regina directly;
   • University of Regina Course - No documentation needed;
   • 30-Level High School Course - One official high school transcript issued by the provincial office or school that is deemed to be responsible for issuing transcripts (the applicant may submit original documents they have in their possession);
   • AP Course - Official statement of results sent directly from the College Board (www.collegeboard.org).

What can I be admitted into?

Home-Based Learners may be admitted directly into programs in the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Social Work, Faculty of Media, Art, and Performance, and the Centre for Continuing Education. There are many areas of study available within these faculties.

https://urconnected.uregina.ca/program.do

Interested in a different faculty or area of study? Students can speak to an Enrolment Counsellor about pathways into other programs and what will be best suited to their goals.
Student Supports

Our broad range of programs and services will help students adjust to campus life and develop the skills required to achieve success as a student and beyond. These supports include:

- Free Math & Writing Tutors
- Skill Development Workshops
- Student Awards & Financial Aid
- Leadership Programs
- Academic Advising
- Career Counselling
- Personal Counselling Services
- IT Support
- And more!

Choosing Your U of R Community

University of Regina students who are studying in the Faculty of Arts, Faculty of Science, and of Media, Art, and Performance have the opportunity to enroll through one of our three federated colleges: Campion College, Luther College, and First Nations University of Canada. Our federated colleges offer students a unique and supportive community within the larger U of R community, at no extra cost.

Enrolling through a federated college is perfect for students who are looking for that extra support and community to call home on campus. Federated college students pay regular tuition and have access to all the U of R supports and services. They also gain access to individual academic advising, smaller class sizes, additional scholarship opportunities, and personalized supports and services.

Campion College

As Canada’s only Jesuit undergraduate college, Campion is one of almost 200 worldwide members of the International Association of Jesuit Universities. They are committed to developing students who believe in giving back to their communities by uniting academic excellence with attention to services for others. Learn more at: www.campioncollege.ca

Luther College

Luther College is committed to providing and maintaining the personal atmosphere, individual attention, and sense of community that only a small university can offer. Their teaching and research is informed by five key principles: commitment to global citizenship, engagement in social justice, pursuit of a sustainable environment, demonstration of high ethical standards, and continuous reflection on values. Visit the website at: www.luthercollege.edu/university

First Nations University of Canada

FNUniv is a unique Canadian institution that specializes in Indigenous knowledge, providing post-secondary education for Indigenous and non-Indigenous students alike within a culturally supportive environment. They provide a holistic educational experience, bringing together quality academic studies with traditional Indigenous knowledge and courses in Saskatchewan’s five Indigenous languages: Cree, Dakota, Dene, Nakota, and Saulteaux. For more information, visit: www.fnuniv.ca

Questions?
Contact us!

Enrolment Services
enrolment.services@uregina.ca
1-306-585-4591
1-800-667-7282