Transfer Credit

- Going on exchange will not delay student's degree
- Learning Agreement to determine course credit
- Student keeps all documentation for classes from exchange
- Process begins once official transcript from exchange received
- Final decision on transfer credit rests with the student's faculty

Visiting Student

Students may be eligible to take a semester or an academic year at an institution that U of R does not have a formal agreement with. This can be done by:

1. Receiving permission from their faculty in the form of a letter of permission
2. Keeping all course outlines and course material from their studies
3. Requesting official transcripts be sent directly to the U of R

Funding Options

- Students utilizing student loans are eligible to continue applying for loans while on exchange
- Students still eligible for continuing scholarships, faculty scholarships
- Student who receive indigenous band funding can use it for their exchange
- Scholarships specific to students going on exchange/international ventures for program
